The Pacific Hotel is well and widely known to the traveling public. The location is especially scitable to merchants and business men; it is in close proximity to the business part of the city—is on the highway of Southern and Western travel—and adjacent to all the principal Railroad and Steamboat depots.

The Pacific has liberal accommedation for over 300 guests; it is well furnished, and possesses every modern improvement for the comfort and entertainment of its inmates. The rooms are spacious, and well ventilated; provided with gas and water; attendance is prompt and respectful; and the table is generally provided with every delicacy of the season.

The subscriber who, for the past few years, has been the lessee, is now sole proprietor, and intends to identify himself thoroughly with the interests of his house. With long experience as a hotel-keeper, he trusts, by moderate charges and liberal policy, to maintain the favorable reputation of the Pacific
